Dear Carol:

Thanks so much for your kind offer of assistance as a liaison to the University of Southern Mississippi Library School and to the Mississippi Library Association. I apologize for delaying in getting this letter to you, but I had hoped to have a little more substantive information (and my law firm is in the middle of moving to a new building). At any rate, here is what I know. The SEALL meeting is scheduled for Thursday April 2 through Saturday April 5, 1990 at the Continuing Education Center of the University of Mississippi. The schedule will probably be similar to those of the past, but as of today no programs have been established. Several activities are planned, including a viewing of a classic movie (whose title Wes can tell you) with a dessert and autograph session following. We also plan to have a picnic lunch on the grounds of William Faulkner's home, Roanoke, on Saturday. Ellis Tucker of the University of Mississippi Law Library is in charge of Local Arrangements and can provide you with further details if you need them. I don't believe the registration fee has been definitively agreed upon as yet, but Ellis or Wes can confirm that for you. Tim Coggins of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill is the Program Chair. As I receive information from him, I will pass it on to you.

We are planning a one and one-half day post-convention institute which may be of more interest to non-law librarians. It will begin on Saturday April 5, probably in the afternoon following the picnic and will conclude during the day on Sunday. The topic will be management and the speaker will be Kaycee Hale. Jim Heller of William and Mary is chairing the committee which is working on it. He will also be sending me information as the year progresses which I will send to you. There will be a separate and, I believe, very reasonable registration fee for the institute. Attendance at the SEALL annual meeting will not be a prerequisite for attending the institute.

As you know, we usually schedule some sort of placement activities during the meeting. This, hopefully, would be of interest to the library school students. Phil Berwick of George Mason University is Placement Chair this year. I will talk with him about the meeting and his plans.

Cherry Thomas of the University of Alabama has the primary responsibility for Mississippi for the committee and I will let her know that you will be helping us. Again, thanks very much for your help. Please call me if I can assist you in any way.

Sincerely,

Hazel L. Johnson
